

SANTFA and MacKillop Farm Management Group appreciate the support of their sponsors & partners:

Glencore Grain, NAB, Glen Carron, Heritage Seeds, Bayer, Topcon, Manutec, John Deere, Elders, Soil Management Systems, Landmark, Nufarm, Pacific Seeds, Syngenta, CropSmart, Goldacres, Serafin Machinery, Sentek, ACTA, Shelbourne Reynolds, Farnoz, Australian Growers Direct, Bayer, Carine's Merchandise, CBH Grain, Commonwealth Bank, Cox Rural, MGA Insurance, Murray Nankivell, Naracoorte Seeds, Scott Petroleum, NAS Agribusiness, Sturt Grain, Wickham Flower

MacKillop Farm Management Group & SANTFA are proud to host the

2013 Upper South East Crop Walk

Wednesday 31st July 2013

Registration is free, including a BBQ lunch 10am kick off – Meeting at the park opposite Foodland, Bordertown. Wagon-train system. Alternatively, see the map on the following page for individual locations.

- 10.30 National Variety Trials - Beans
- 11.45 National Variety Trials - Wheat
- 1.00 Lunch
- 2.00 MacKillop Soil Moisture Probe Trial Site
- 2.15 National Variety Trials - Canola, Oats and Barley
- 3.30 Viewing a Conservapac seeder with John Deere Air Cart & Networking Drinks

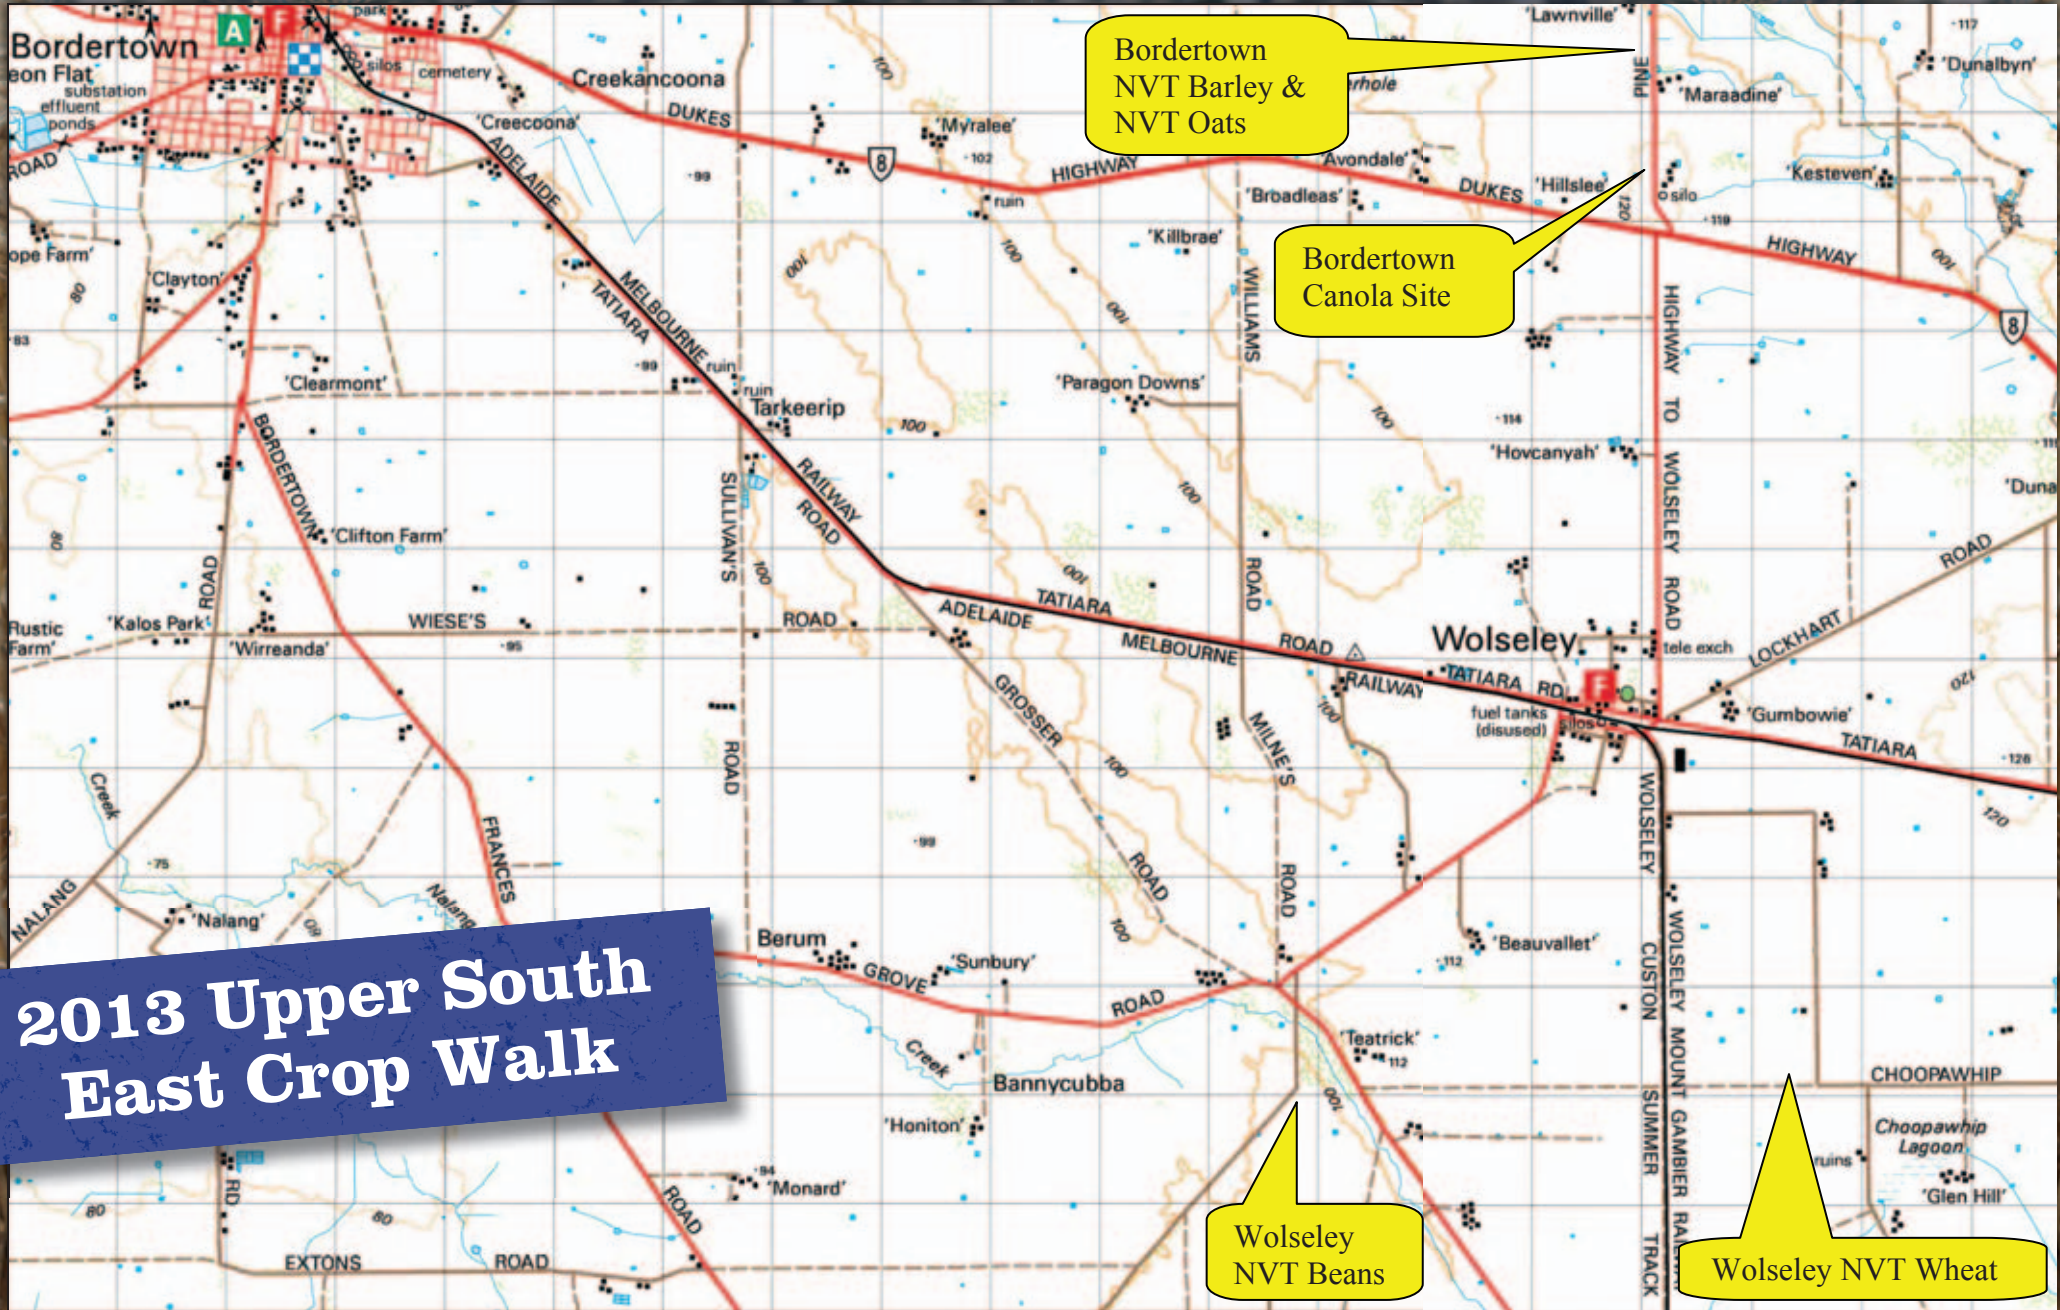

- SARDI Senior Research Officer Charlton Jeismann & Agronomy Team Leader Rob Wheeler will talk about the GRDC funded National Variety Trials & current agronomic trends.
- SANTFA Research and Development Manager will be on hand throughout the day to answer questions from the audience and talk about his research into soil moisture probes and seeder calibrations.

For more information please contact:

Alex Milner-Smyth
(SANTFA)
alex@sanfta.com.au
0412 6333 70

Ted Langley
(SANTFA)
eclangey@bigpond.com
0407 398 165

Felicity Turner
(MacKillop)
projects@
mackillopgroup.com.au
0400 299 087

Bordertown
NVT Barley &
NVT Oats

Bordertown
Canola Site

2013 Upper South East Crop Walk

Wolseley
NVT Beans

Wolseley NVT Wheat